

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, June 15

1999

CaER Directorate all-hands meeting set Wednesday

The Customer and Employee Relations (CaER) Directorate will hold an all-hands meeting Wednesday from 1:45-3:45 p.m. at the Rustic Lodge. Bus transportation will depart Bldg. 4200 at 1 p.m. and stop at Bldg. 4666 immediately after. Buses will be available for the return trip.

Information technology
awareness training
Wed., 9-10 a.m.,
Morris Auditorium

Safety & Mission Assurance all-
hands Thurs., 1:45-3:45 p.m.,
Bldg. 4200, P110

Last day to purchase tickets to farewell for Joel Kearns

Tuesday is the last day to purchase tickets to Thursday's farewell reception for Joel Kearns, manager of Marshall's Microgravity Research Program Office. All employees, retirees and on-site contractors are invited to the 4-6 p.m. reception in the Bldg. 4203 cafeteria. Tickets, at $7 each, are on sale from administrative officers or Joyce Wright, Bldg. 4201, room 119B. For more information, call Wright at 544-7577.

Stephenson to address Marshall Association lunch

Center Director Art Stephenson will speak at the Marshall Association's monthly luncheon June 21 at 11:30 a.m. Lunch is $5 for members and non-members. Make reservations at: efrem.hanson@msfc.nasa.gov

Blue Cross/Blue
Shield rep here
9-11 a.m. Thurs. in Bldg. 4200,
room 324